NO ROOM AT KALAMAZOO.
Patients are Removed to Accommodate Others.

Superintendent Lankaster took Edward F. Richards of Sparta, to the Kalamazoo asylum Monday night. The order for his admission was issued by the probate court, but upon the arrival of Mr. Lankaster with the patient, he was informed by the officials of the institution that there was no room for him unless the superintendent could take one of the patients away, so he brought back Dr. Edward O'Neil, who was sent from this city two years ago. The doctor was a cocaine fiend and has apparently been cured of the habit. He was sent to the institution as a state charge and he is now in this county without any means of support. The superintendent of the poor have engaged board for him at a restaurant for a few days until he can procure means to support himself. He has no family or relatives here to care for him. Young Richards in his ravings kicked a window out of the back while going from the depot to the asylum, and Superintendent Lankaster had to put up $2 to pay the damage.

End of a Long and Useful Life.

Mrs. Cynthia W. Eaton, widow of Harry Eaton, died at her home on South Lafayette street yesterday morning, at the great age of a little more than 87 years. Her life, though remarkably quiet and modest, was as beautiful and useful as it was long. And a large circle of friends among the earlier residents of the city will mourn that she preceded them while rejoicing that she is at rest—as she desired to be—and will recount her many virtues and her splendid example and counsel with strong expressions of esteem and affection.

Mrs. Eaton was one of a large family of children born to General Solomon Hunt, a distinguished officer of the war of 1812, whose home was on a farm near Brattleboro, Vermont. She was born January 5, 1805, and married Harry Eaton when about 20 years old at her father's home. Shortly after the wedding they came to James town, N. Y., and lived there several years. In 1830, Eaton came west on a prospecting tour, decided to make Grand Rapids his home, and in 1835 they left Dunkirk, N. Y., in one of the first steamers that ever plied on the lakes, in which they came to Chicago, thence by sailing vessel to Grand Haven, and thence by one of the first river steamers up to the village of Kent. Here she has lived ever since, seeing the hamlet of a few hundred people grow into a city of 50,000 population, and feeling that her family have been factors in this growth, for her husband was one of the first officers of the county and a man who was highly esteemed. He preceded her in death more than thirty years, in 1859. She was one of the original members of the First, now the Park Congregational church, and has ever lived consistently with her profession. Of late years, because of the infirmities of her great age, she has been compelled to remain in her home, but while anxious to rest from her labors, has ever been cheerful and patient.

She leaves three sons, Charles W. Eaton, senior of the jobbing and retail firm of Eaton, Lyon & Co. of this city, who has devoted his life to her for many years, with a rare and beautiful fidelity which attests the strong affection she inspired. Theodore C. of St. Louis and Henry S. Eaton of Duluth. A son and an infant daughter preceded her in death. A younger sister, Mrs. Billie Stocking of this city, also survives her. Funeral from the residence, Thursday, at 3 p. m.

Will Interest You.

If you are sick and have not been helped, why do you not write a full description of your case to the great specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York, known everywhere as the discoverer of Dr. Greene's Nervura, and who is without doubt the most successful physician in the cure of all longstanding complaints?

Consultation in all cases is entirely free, personally or by mail. Thousands consult him by letter, and he returns an answer to all perfectly explaining their diseases, giving advice, etc., without charge.

His success in curing diseases by his marvellous vegetable remedies is simply wonderful, and he has made a specialty of the cure of persons at a distance through letter correspondence and treatment. In this manner thousands of people have been and thousands more are being cured, and we should advise you, if you desire a true cure from your disease, to immediately write him all about your case. It will cost you nothing to get his very valuable advice.

A Great Success.

There are many remarkable successes on the road this season, but none exceed the popularity enjoyed by the latest New York success, "She Couldn't Marry 'Three.'" Press and public accord it an ovation wherever presented. The scenic effects are superb, the story an intense and interesting one, unlike the many unreasonable and unnatural plays with which the public are surprised. It is full of hearty laughter, bright and catchy music, the most sensational climaxes. The company is one of the strongest on the road, the scenery the most magnificent ever built, and as the curtain rises on each act, prolonged applause attests the public appreciation of each beautiful stage picture. The great scenic artist, Messrs. Daniel Crammings and Herbert Speck feel justly proud of their work on this production.
